

I am strongly opposed to this petition. I believe that the FCC must act to preserve freedom of choice when it comes to ISP providers. Qwest has not provided quality telephone service in my area--noisy phone lines, limited consumer services (I still cannot get voice messaging) and I have no reason to believe they would do any better in internet services. Preserving my ISP options is essential to preserving my ability to speak with my pocketbook and support those businesses that support me.